

Pittsburgh Youth Chamber Orchestra and Coro Latinoamericano

PITTSBURGH

Present

Latin American Fiesta!

*A concert of classical and popular
Latin American music that will make you dance in your seats!*

Sunday, May 6, 2012 • 5 PM
Carnegie Music Hall (Oakland)

The Pittsburgh Youth Chamber Orchestra, conducted by Pablo Ardiles, will start the "Fiesta" by performing music from composers representative of the Latin American classical repertoire, including Huapango by José Pablo Moncayo (Venezuela), Son by Fernando Meza (Costa Rica) and Danzón No. 2 by Arturo Marquez (Mexico). The concert will feature Brazilian soprano Lilly Abreu, with cello ensemble director Younga Reitz, and Peruvian tenor Enrique Bernardo, with Costa Rican guest conductor, maestro Walter Morales, performing music from Brazil and Costa Rica; the PYCO Junior Brass Ensemble, conducted by Philip VanOuse, performing Brazilian Folk music; and music from Argentina with a tango ensemble and dancers.

The Coro Latinoamericano - Pittsburgh (Latin American Choir - Pittsburgh) and guest performers, conducted by Dr. Meredith Armbrust, will perform a selection of some of the most popular Latin American songs, including Adelita (Mexico), Cachita and Guajira Guantanamera (Cuba), Prendeme la Vela (Colombia), and other rhythmic pearls of Latin American culture.

The concert will close with the exhilarating Danza Final by Alberto Ginastera and Mambo by Leonard Bernstein, with a grand finale by Coro Latinoamericano and the Pittsburgh Youth Chamber Orchestra joining together to perform America from West Side story and Brazil.
