The Pittsburgh Youth Chamber Orchestra (PYCO), conducted by Pablo Ardiles, and the Coro Latinoamericano - Pittsburgh (Latin American Choir - Pittsburgh), conducted by Dr. Meredith Armbrust, are pleased to present "LATIN AMERICAN FIESTA!", a concert of classical and popular Latin American music that will make you dance in your seats! This FREE event will take place on SUNDAY, MAY 6, 2012 at 5:00 PM at the Carnegie Music Hall (Oakland), 4400 Forbes Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15213, Phone: 412-622-3131. The concert will feature Brazilian Soprano Lilly Abreu, with cello ensemble director Younga Reitz, and Peruvian tenor Enrique Bernardo, with Costa Rican guest conductor Walter Morales; the PYCO Junior Brass Ensemble, conducted by Philip VanOuse, performing Brazilian Folk music; and music from Argentina with a tango ensemble and dancers. The concert will close with the exhilarating Danza Final by Ginastera and Mambo by Bernstein, with a grand finale by Coro Latinoamericano and the PYCO joining together to perform America from West Side Story and Brazil.

To help meet the cost of orchestra scores, sets of parts, coaches' fees, guests artists, advertising, program printing and concert production, we are asking for your financial support. Corporate, business or individual advertising is available in our program as well as shout-out messages where parents, family and friends can post personal messages of encouragement for the orchestra, choir or individual musicians. The program will be professionally designed and printed in high quality paper and full color.

An attendance of 1,000 people or more is expected for this concert. We would be pleased to include your advertisement in our program as well as any message you would like to post. The program pages measure 5 1/2 inches x 8 1/2 inches. Ads may be placed in the following sizes:
